

Parenting as a Team:

When Parents Disagree about Discipline

Where: Lunenburg Public Library

Date: Tuesday May 5 (Registration required by May 4)

Time: 7 - 8:30pm

Guest speaker Dr. Debra Weinstock-Savoy from Parent Resource Associates in Lexington will help parents understand and support their differing parenting styles and recognize when it is important to agree. Program will unfortunately have to be cancelled if not enough interest is shown.

Offered for free through Lunenburg School-Linked Services.

Parenting: From Mild to Wild

The teen years are filled with change and challenge. This 3-session workshop will help you understand your teens better and prepare you with new skills to live with them more cooperatively.

Through information, discussion, and activities, this workshop is a stress-free, fun way to find out that you are not alone with your questions and concerns about this new parenting stage.

Facilitated by Lois Block, MPH, Parent Educator and Patty McCarthy-Guillette, LICSW, Lunenburg School-Linked Services.

Date: Three consecutive Thursdays - May 7, 14 & 21

Time: 9:30am - 11am

Where: Chester Mossman Teen Center

How: Call 978-582-4129 to register

Great childcare provided - great opportunity to take a break from your challenging job, talk with other parents and learn some new strategies for raising your young children. Call the office to register - come to as many as you are able.

Sponsored by the MA Department of Education, ASOST Grant

Call 978 582-4129 to register for either program.
